. . . He Ran to a Nearby Farm to Telephone the Fire Department

Fire broke out one afternoon in a farm home in Southern Minnesota. One of the men living in the house saw the flames from the barn. Having no telephone, he ran to a nearby farm to notify the Fire Department . . . it arrived a few minutes too late to save the building.

A farm telephone is worth more than it costs . . . just for emergencies. But that is a small part of its job. It saves trips and makes money for the farmer . . . it makes possible social contacts with friends . . . doing away with farm isolation and making farm life more attractive.

"The Telephone is Priceless on the Farm"

"Farm life is more attractive and farm work is much more pleasant with a telephone," says one Minnesota farmer. "It helps solve farm labor problems and the farmer and family get more joy out of life and get more out of public affairs. It saves time and makes money for the farmer."

The Most Valuable thing in—

Your Home

Your Telephone

IF, EVERY time the use of your telephone saves you time, money and hard work, you would put the equivalent of its service in money into a home savings bank, you would find at the end of the year that the sum would prove your telephone one of the most valuable investments you ever made. Of course, there are times when the telephone performs services for you which cannot be estimated in dollars and cents, for a few minutes often mean the saving of a life or averting a fire that might wipe out the work and sacrifices of a lifetime. Don't let anything stop your telephone service—

You Need It!

TIME IS MONEY

—make use of this short cut!

BUSINESS travels at a fast pace today. Miles mean nothing to us any more. Rural districts, towns, cities and nations are all closely hooked up in the vast network of telephone lines that encircle the globe. Work that formerly took months is now done in minutes. A word on the telephone and the deal is closed.

Your time is worth money. An hour wasted can never be made up. To save yourself expensive trips to town, make more use of your telephone. By getting price quotations over the telephone you can buy and sell to the best advantage. The modern method of doing business is by telephone. It pays big dividends on a little investment of a few cents a day.
